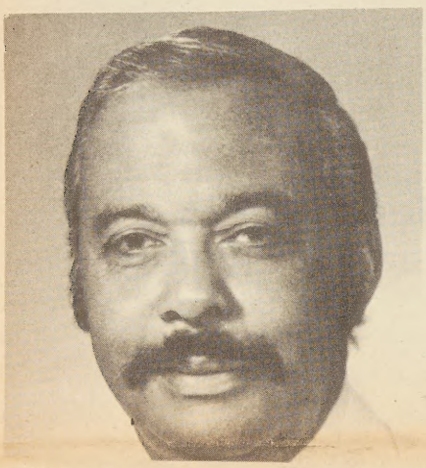
Tacoma N.A.A.C.P. Attorneys to Defend Black Seamen in Phillipines



Two attorneys of the Western Region NAACP Legal Committee will go to the Phillipine Islands to begin defense of Black seaman who have been imprisoned since an incident aboard the U.S.S. Alamo several weeks ago.

Mrs. Virna M. Canson, Regional Director, West Coast Region NAACP, announced today that Attorney Jack E. Tanner and Franklin D. Burgess of Tacoma, Washington have been selected by NAACP General Counsel, Nathaniel Jones of New York, to defend the men at court martial trials beginning August 19th at Subic Bay Naval Base in the Phillipines. Attorney Tanner is a long time civil rights worker. He is presently President of the Tacoma Branch NAACP.

Benjamin James of San Francisco, Special Counsel NAACP Region I, is coordinating this effort. Regional Legal Chairman Nathaniel S. Colley of Sacramento is also involved.

Seaman involved are: A.M. Stone, W.J. Field, R.D. Duty, E.H. Dykes, T.C. Munson, and B.Pye Jr. They have all been charged with assault and destruction of government property.

Mrs. Canson said, "The call for help comes frequently from young Blacks in the military, especially from those on foreign soils. Within the past three years, Region I staff and attorneys have been involved in several investigations and defense of Black service personnel, among them are: Defense of Black in the Kitty Hawk cases; investigation of military bases on the Island of Oahu; investigation of riots at Fairfield-Suisun. NAACP continues to be the organization to which people turn in time of trouble."

Mrs. Canson concluded, "Dedicated services such as that of our attorneys going to the Phillipines and the contributions of supporters of civil rights are our only resources. We call on men and women of good will to help NAACP in its on-going fight against racism and its many manifestations. Contributions and applications for NAACP membership should be sent to NAACP West Coast Region, 870 Market St., Room 378, San Francisco, CA 94102 or to the Tacoma NAACP Membership Chairperson, Ms. Rose Marie Johnson, 4111 Brouse Blvd. W., Tacoma, WA 98466. Annual memberships are: $6.00 - $10.00 - $25.00."

Carroyl Kleine Appointed Head of MDC Education Project

Carroyl Kleine has been appointed director of the Educational Opportunity and Resource Center (EORC), a new education project of the Metropolitan Development Council. Announcement of her appointment is made by J. Linsey Hinand, Executive Director of MDC.

As director of the EORC, Ms. Kleine will be responsible for the administration of the $164,000 grant awarded to MDC early in July by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Ms. Kleine has been in the education field for 19 years, having taught all grades ranging from pre-school through the college level. She received her BA in education at Northern Colorado State University and her masters degree in counseling from Adams State College in Colorado. She has also done graduate work in tests and measurement and school administration. She has recently been associated with the University of Puget Sound as an auditor for the Region X Office of Child Development Head Start Monitoring Project.

MDC is one of 12 sites in the United States selected to begin a pilot education project. According to Ms. Kleine, the EORC will be a clearing house, a catalyst to bring all the multiple academic and vocational resources for post-secondary education into one center. It will coordinate the efforts of many people into a common goal. The project will serve those persons who reside in the project's area of major concentration of low-income population who desire to pursue a program of post-secondary education. It will provide such services as recruiting and counseling, financial and academic assistance and tutoring for educationally disadvantaged persons.

Ms. Kleine, Russell Agnew, MDC Director of Education, and Jo Sand, MDC Fiscal Officer, returned this week from a conference in Washington, D.C. which brought together the directors of the 12 projects across the country to discuss national guidelines and program objectives. They will return to the nation's capitol late in August or early September for the purpose of making final program adjustments.

Notice To Our Readers

THE FACTS NEWSPAPERS are feeling the pressure of the inflation crunch. The cost of newsprint has soared drastically, nearly doubling in just a year's time. Consequently our production costs have doubled. We intend to hang on in there, bringing you the news of our community every week, but there will have to be a few changes: we may have to cut down the length of the news articles and there is the possibility that we may not be able to continue our format of colored newsprint. Like the rest of Americans, we look forward to the time when rampant inflation is brought under control.

THE TACOMA FACTS will climax its "BACK TO SCHOOL" Special Edition in the August 29th issue.

Urban League Director Honored

Urban League Director, Tom Dixon, was the proud recipient of a plaque presented to him by the Black Businessmen and Professional Women Association on Friday night August 16, 1974 at the Association's Clubhouse on South "J" Street. The affair, which turned out to be one of the finest and most appropriate in-formal affairs of the season was attended by people representing many areas of interest. Representing the governor's office from Olympia was Mr. Nat Jackson, assistant to the governor, Deputy Mayor Harriman of Tacoma and Councilman Harold Moss. Also among those in attendance and presenting superb entertainment were the very popular female group, "The Essence". The very attractive and stately '74 Afro Queen Dorine Ferguson, provided pleasure for the guests as she sang "As I Glance Across the Table". The presentation of honoree Tom Dixon by Councilman Moss, the award presentation by Association president Charles Walker, as well as remarks by the governor's assistant Nat Jackson were broadcasted from KYOY Radio. Tom Dixon was cited for his many humane endeavors throughout the community and his continued outgoing and untiring perseverance on behalf of community development. Tom cited local individuals who inspired and encouraged him to prepare himself and accept the responsibility which brings him to the present position he now holds.

New Students Urged to Register Early for School

Junior and senior high school students, new to Tacoma, are encouraged to register for classes prior to August 23. School counselors will be at all secondary schools until then and will again be available after school starts.

S.E. Mazzei, administrator for secondary education, urges youngsters new to the district to take advantage of the advance registration time. "Boys and girls who register early have the best selection of classes available," Mazzei says. "If they cannot pre-register by August 23, we urge new students to enroll the following week. This enables the school principals to include them as teachers' schedules are being built." Secretaries will enroll students beginning August 26, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Students are to attend the attendance area in which they live unless they have initiated an application for an optional enrollment transfer. There is a maximum enrollment figure for each high school. If the number of applications exceeds that figure, students are placed on a waiting list.

Students new to the district or those who have questions about their attendance area are asked to contact the district's attendance office at the Central Administration Building, 383-1811, ext. 435.

TIME, OBVIOUSLY, is relative. Two weeks on vacation is not the same as two weeks on a diet.

Mark Adams Runs for Judge

Assistant Tacoma City Attorney Mark H. Adams has filed as a candidate for Pierce County Justice Court, District No. 2.

Adams, a prosecutor and legal counsel to such city departments as Model Cities, Human Development, and Human Relations, will oppose incumbent Willard Hedlund, 65, holder of Position No. 3 for 20 years.

An experienced trial lawyer, Adams is a graduate of the University of California Law School.

A life-long resident of the Pacific Northwest, the 29 year-old attorney is married and the father of a two year-old daughter. Adams resides in University Place.

Health Issue Group Aids Community

By Mr. Imara

The Metropolitan Development Council's Health Issue Group is a community based citizens group which has as its aim, purpose, and goal the education of all persons and implementation of as many health related projects as possible, to serve the total health needs of Tacoma-Pierce County.

The MDC Health Issue Group is an advocate for all peoples who lack proper information and resources, to effectively traverse everyday health and health related problems.

The Health Issue Group has been in existence for approximately five (5) years, and during its formation, HIG has been instrumental in causing and influencing the development of a number of health programs. For instance, HIG was the forward thrust in initiating: 1) The Family Clinic, which was based at St. Joseph's Hospital; 2) the Well-child clinic and 3) Family planning presently located near Tacoma General Hospital.

It behooves me that low-income non-whites and equally concerned persons don't have an on-going citizens group advocating quantity and quality health care. Even though MDC's HIG ha s been in recent months on the verge of collapse for lack of citizens participation, at present the group had gradually been gaining progressive minded and action oriented members who are forging out new approaches, to old problems of providing health care for those without it.

Last week, the health issue group donated approximately $250.00 toward publication of a welfare rights handbood, which will be distributed by the local Welfare Rights Committee. The Welfare Rights Handbook will be a source of assistance to those Welfare recipients who have problems with DSHS bureaucracy and recipient rights under laws of the State of Washington.

The Health Issue Group meets every first and third Thursday of each month from 7:30 p.m. - 9 p.m., at the Grace Methodist Church, located at 1801 East 34th Street.

There's no need for you to deny getting involved with paving the way for more and better health services. The HIG assuredly isn't the only way to bring about change i.e. education, but HIG does have better ideas and has an effective work program for the coming fiscal year beginning October, 1974.

Join the Health Issue Group, phone 572-8200 or 383-3921. Within the next several months, the HIG will have produced four (4) T.V. programs and seminars on health education and related information including seminar providing information on the Hill-Burton Act, and its impact on health services for the low-income.

HIG will provide and distribute all currently available National Health Insurance information. Mental Health services relating to the minority community and preparation of a grant for funding for training of minorities in the mental health field is what the MDC Health Issue Group is putting together.

New Street Lights

A contract has been approved and the green light is on to start removing the old street lights and replacing them with the newly designed lighting system you chose last summer. The standards made of aggregate stone and cement, together with a post top luminaire (fixture), will be the first of this type in the City of Tacoma. Pictured on the right, the new lights will be about 2½ times higher, requiring only three per block on each side of the street. Instead of the glare you now witness from each light as you drive down the road, an even distribution of illumination will flood the entire street, making it safer and more pleasant.

The existing lights are beginning to deteriorate because replacement standards are no longer available. An unsafe situation exists when there are broken lights and exposed wiring. Interested area residents attending the Project Area Committee meetings requested the City Light Department to make a presentation at which time the type of standard and light was chosen. The choice was a fine one and will compliment the neighborhood.

The 1974-75 roster of guest artists scheduled to appear with the Tacoma Symphony Orchestra and Conductor Edward Seferian, promises great musical entertainment for Tacomans.

George Shirley is a leading star of the Metropolitan Opera, Convent Garden, Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires, Glyndebourne and the Scottish National Opera. He has sung more than 30 roles for the Metropolitan since his debit, and has many recordings to his credit, having sung with most of the major symphony orchestras in the country. He has been herald as "exciting", "magnetic", with "great stage presence", a possibility of occupying the supreme place once held by Richard Tucker. The season will open Oct. 2nd at the University of Puget Sound. George Shirley, tenor will present the final concert on April 19.

A nation is held together by shared values, shared beliefs, shared attitudes. That is what enables a people to maintain a cohesive society despite the frustrations and tensions of daily life. That is what enables them to rise above the inevitable conflicts and divisions that plague any society. That is what gives a nation its tone, its fiber, its integrity, its moral style, its capacity to endure.

Black Forum News

Last Friday's meeting was a preview of things to come. We were visited by 3 candidates and an official Stand-in. They were: Byron Brody - opposing Congressman Hicks in the Democratic Primary for 6th Congressional District seat; Mark Adams - running for judge Pierce Co. Justice Court #1 Position 3; Nels B. Nelson - running for City Attorney; Barry Jackson - representing Congressman Hicks who was in Washington, D.C.

The Black Forum is an information sharing organization. These were the first candidates to address our group this election year. Due to conflicting engagements a number of our members couldn't be present, but enthusiasm was a substitute for numerical strength. The Forum members questioned each candidate and Mr. Jackson in the areas affecting the Black Community. It was really an informative and lively session. Due to fairness to their opponents I will not relate in this article what the replys were, but a full report will be given next meeting.

The Black Community has a right for concern as to who's elected...and where they stand on overt Affirmative Action in all areas. We must be counted before the fact and not after the deed has been done. We would hope to see any and every interested person out to Black Forum meetings. Bring thoughts - Take away ideas - This will add up to ACTION. We must be firm. We must consolidate - for our common good and the betterment of our communities. Don't sit at home and wish you could show or tell someone what's happening in your part of town, on your job, to people you know, in your church, at your meetings, TELL the Forum. Information sharing is the name of the game. "Through knowledge the world might unfold". "Ignorance plays a part when Crisis' come". See you Friday's at 5:30 p.m. at the Esquire Restaurant in the conference room. Chairperson this week is Oscar Morris.

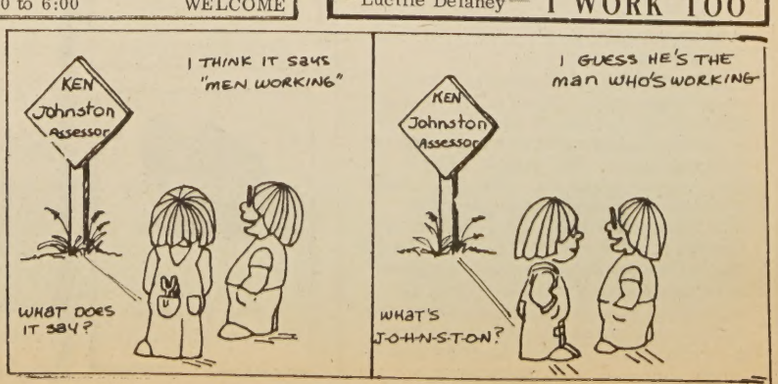
'I WORK TOO'



Who's Who?

by Barbara Henderson, age 14

Linda Jones, 16 yr. old daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Milton F. Jones, 10707 110th St. is a big contributor to the track scene. Linda is going to be a senior at Lakes High School.

In 1973 Linda placed 3rd in the nation for the 14 & 15 yr. old group in the 100 yd. dash with the time of 11.1 & 4th in the nation in the 220 with the time of 25.1 sec. For this achievement she went to the Jr. Olympics in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Recently she was State Champ in the 100 yd. dash with the time of 11.0 and in the 220 she had the best time ever which was 25.0. For this she went to Lincoln, Nebraska. Linda was also anchor for the 440 relay team and brought them to a state record. The team now holds the title.

Linda has traveled across the United States, she has broken her own records and she is on her way to an exciting life of athletic competition, which I think is a great accomplishment.

Her parents are proud of the way she is coming along. Her birthday is Aug. 26 (Virgo). Do you think her zodiac sign has something to do with her success?

Juvenile Shoplifters Warned

Would-be juvenile shoplifters received a stern warning today from the Tacoma Police Department as area stores prepared for a major invasion of shoplifters this week.

Sergeant Robert Higdon of Youth Guidance, said all major stores increase their security forces during this time of the year in anticipation of increased offenses due to back-to-school shopping.

"What happens is that some younger people take advantage of the already crowded store conditions to conceal their illegal activities," Higdon explained. "Most of the children the Youth Guidance Division officers encounter are taking things for school which their parents may not be able to afford to purchase for them."

He pointed out that school supplies were most frequently taken, but there had been an increase in theft of clothing in recent years. "The youth steal what they want to have for school and the value of stolen property can vary from under a dollar to a hundred dollars in some cases. The larger thefts are relatively rare, however."

Youthful offenders of shoplifting are frequently treated more harshly in punishment by the courts than their adult counterparts as judges attempt to curtail further criminal involvement by making second offense penalties more severe than just a warning and restitution.

"We hope that parents will urge their children not to steal and that if their children do bring something home, they will return it to the store from which it was taken. We cannot stress enough the importance of breaking the habit or tendency to steal when it first appears in children. The longer it is tolerated, the more of a habit it becomes and the more likely it will remain a part of the person's adult behavioral pattern," Higdon added.

Tacoma police have asked citizens to report shoplifting offenses to either store security personnel or the police department in an attempt to hold youthful offenders accountable for their deeds.

"It is unfortunate that this condition occurs at predictable times of an annual basis," Higdon continued. "We always experience a rash of shoplifting complaints and arrests during late August and September and again right before the Christmas holidays. Much of the merchandise taken is of little value, but when compiled with everything else, the total amount taken in a single store may be staggering.

Nationwide, security personnel brace themselves for this time of the year and Tacoma is no different as additional security people are hired to help discourage shoplifting during the back-to-school rush.

Dear Tac Vac

by Ted Jefferson

Q--The Veterans Administration has notified me that I'm entitled to a 10 percent disability payment, which will be deducted from my military retired pay. If I accept the VA payment won't I lose money on the portion I receive from VA when retired pay is increased by the cost-of-living?

A--No. The cost-of-living retired pay increase is computed on the total pay to which you are entitled before deduction of the VA payment. When the retired pay amount, including the percentage increase is determined, the VA payment is subtracted from the new total.

Q--Veterans from 100 percent disabled down to 80 percent were granted the privilege of outpatient treatment for almost any medical condition. The 100 percent disability I know also carries this right for families. May 80 percent disabled also have the family privilege under the law?

A--No. Only the wives and children of a total disabled service-connected veteran or a veteran who died as the result of such disability are eligible.

HUD doesn't sell houses, so please don't call HUD for details. All sales are made through professional Real Estate brokers. Almost all licensed Real Estate brokers have complete lists of homes available. They will be glad to help you find the home suitable for you, and to answer all your questions. Call one today. THE FACTS—SPORTS SCENE

Sports Record Book

by Brian Jaybush

Hooray for Football??

There were more than 45,000 Seattleites who found time not to attend last weekend's half-rookie, half veteran football game at Husky Stadium. Which left plenty of room for the 5,184 hardy sould who did pour out to use two or three seats to stretch out and lie down, if they so desired--and catch a little sleep, too, as they "witnessed" the St. Louis Cards demolish the San Diego Chargers, 48-14.

Last weekend marked the first time this season that veteran players have appeared in any exhibition games, following the imposition of a "cooling off" period in the negotiation of the long NFL players' strike. Most of the vets reported to their training camps in the middle of last week, with little or no training or conditioning. San Diego coach Tommy Prothro decided that vets would be of little use under these circumstances, and played most of the game as he has previous exhibitions this season, with 99% rookies. St. Louis skipper Don Coryell, however, figured his vets needed the workout, and stuck them in to play about half the game.

The results were devastating: even out of condition, the veterans completely outclassed their rookie opponents.

But few Seattleites cared one way or the other. Perhaps it was the warning that, if you bought a ticket to this game, your name would be turned over to whoever eventually owns Seattle's own NFL team as a potential season ticket purchaser. Not many Seattleites want to commit themselves yet, till they see what kind of shape the NFL is in when the Seattle team starts play in 1976.

Or perhaps it was sheer boredom. The World Football League has been going for a number of weeks now, and the fans have been watching their brand of football on TV every Thursday night for a while now. After that, who wants to pay $7.50 to go out in Seattle's August rain to watch an exhibition game between the rookies of what were, last year, two of the NFL's worst teams?

Plus the fact, the players' strike isn't over yet. It's only postponed two weeks. Come September, if no headway is made in the negotiations, the vets could be out on the picket lines again--during regular season games, this time.

People have been saying that football has replaced baseball as the National Pastime Sport. But if the current disasterous trend continues--imagine, only 5,184 paid fans at an NFL game!--people could have to look elsewhere for a new National Pastime Sport.

Any suggestions, Sonic and Sounder fans?

TRUTH IS NOT only stranger than fiction these days—it's a lot cleaner, too.
